The Harrison-Shaw PREACHING MISSION has been established in memory of W.S. Harrison, Sr. of Asheville and J. Paul Shaw of Raleigh, NC. The purpose of the mission is to bring the ministry of outstanding religious leaders of various denominations to the people of Asheville, Buncombe County and the surrounding area. While the mission is held at Trinity United Methodist Church, the services are interdenominational and are designed to offer inspiration, Christian nurture and Christian fellowship to all people. It is our prayer that by uniting in this spiritual experience the churches of our community will be drawn closer together.

Dear Mary Jo:

Once again we thank you for sharing the Harrison Shaw Preaching Mission with residents of Givens Estates. This is obviously a marvelous ministry for the entire Asheville Community. It is very thoughtful of you to continually make it possible to let our residents hear these wonderful preachers. The Reverend Small was certainly a good choice. The residents told me how much it truly meant to them. He really touched a deeper part of their spirit, when he talked about the ministry of prayer, with which each of them can still be involved. Thanks again.

RE: For Use in Press Releases, Flyer Descriptions

P. Douglas Small is a pastor at heart, a family man—the father of five children. He has taught Marriage and Family at the college level. In his practical seminars on family life, the principles from scripture come alive along with the wisdom of his own experiences.

P. Douglas Small is a trainer for Psychological Publications, a Managing Associate for the Carlson Learning Center, and an instructor in Family Life. He has authored four seminars on Family Life that have been presented across the nation.

P. Douglas Small has served as a Pastor, as Christian Educator at the elementary, secondary and collegiate level. He is a specialist in the area of Family Life and leadership development. He and Barbara, his wife of 28 years, have five children. They conduct seminars on Family Life.

P. Douglas Small is a Managing Associate with Carlson Learning Company, one of the nations's foremost producers of Leadership Assessment and Management tools. These excellent tools combined with practical adaptation to the needs of the church make Alive's seminars some of the best in the nation—professional, practical and personal.

P. Douglas Small is a facilitator for International Renewal Ministries, a unique program aimed at pastors who desire to be men of prayer, servant-leaders of their cities who together have set their hearts on revival. Doug is a father to five children ranging in age from 16 to 28. He is a national seminar and conference speaker addressing relevant issues affecting men and their relationships. His own outreach, ALIVE MINISTRIES, is an interdenominational Family Life and Leadership Development seminar ministry that has touched thousands.

P. Douglas Small is a teacher. In his Bible Conferences, the warmth of a pastor's heart and the richness of a Bible College classroom come together. "Practical . . . relevant . . . life changing" are words that are used to describe the insights gained. Whether the subject matter is "Principles of Worship and the Tabernacle of Moses," or "The Visions of Zechariah" — inspiration and information converge for positive life change.

P. Douglas Small is a minister, a counselor and specialist in Leadership Development and Family Life. His workshops on Ministerial Burnout and issues relevant to the Pastor and his family reflect his sensitivity for fellow ministers. He has a way of relating scripture to everyday life that is fresh and unique. He is frequently called upon to speak to ministers and wives at campmeetings and retreats. His own experience includes home missions work, the Christian school ministry, college faculty and administration service, Pastoral ministry and Christian counseling. He presently serves with International Renewal Ministries as a facilitator for their city-wide Pastors' Prayer Summits. Wherever he serves, he serves with the heart of a pastor.
